

ACTIVITY - SKIT ON ADDICTION
CLASS : VIII
RESULT

DATE :NOVEMBER 7, 2012

The students of class VIII presented their views and ideas in the form of skits on Demerits of Addiction. The activity was conducted on November 7, 2012. The message was clearly put forward that excess of anything is bad, be it studies, Viewing of Television, Use of Mobile Phones, Cosmetic and Pharmaceutical Products or Eating of Junk Food.

Class VIII C secured the First Position, effectively depicting the disadvantages of watching television beyond limit.

Class VIII A was awarded the Second Position for showcasing that over use of cosmetics and medicines can prove harmful.

Class VIII D and VIII E were jointly declared Third Position Holders.

Class VIII D tried to prove that excess consumption of junk food is not good for health.

Class VIII E tried to bring forward their Idea that in today's world a student should be an all rounder, not merely a bookworm.

The Consolation Prize was bagged by the students of VIII B who were of the opinion that the use of Mobile Phones beyond limits is not safe.

Last but not the least, one student from each section was adorned with the title of Best Character.

The activity proved to be a success as it not only entertained the students but also tried to enlighten them about the drawbacks of various habits.
